

HEARTFELT STORIES OF OUR ERA

I build on systems of meaning, using metaphors as architecture and symbols as argument. I seek the essence that survives translation in cultural stories to create a shared ground—where different histories meet and the audience leaves carrying something new.

THE WITNESS DESK

Essays on theatre, myth, and the stories that shape how we see the world.

ONE FIRE IN DIFFERENT COSMOLOGIES

Every era produces characters that carry the full weight of their civilization's beliefs about what a human being is, what they owe the world, and what happens when they fall short. Medea and Cleopatra, are two going to analyze them.
